Herter Calls Western Talks 'Successful'

Secretary of State Reporting Today to Ike On Allied Parley

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Christian A. Herter flew in today from Western strategy talks in Paris and said he will report to President Eisenhower at Gettysburg this morning.

Herter called his talks with the foreign ministers of Britain, France, and West Germany "very successful" in laying out the Western position for negotiating with the Soviet Union at Geneva, Switzerland, on German problems.

"Both in spirit and in substance," he said, "we reached complete agreement on a highly important Western position. This should assist us greatly in making progress at Geneva, if the Soviet Union demonstrates an honest desire to negotiate."

Herter's plane landed at Washington airport. He told newsmen he was going from the airport to the White House where he would board a helicopter for the brief flight to Gettysburg. The President is spending the week end at his farm there.

Herter was asked whether the "complete agreement" he reported at Paris had been reached because the Western foreign ministers made no attempt to settle many details.

"We settled every detail that came up," Herter said.

He was asked whether he is optimistic about the prospects for the negotiations with the Russians at the Geneva foreign ministers meeting which will open May 11.

"If I knew what frame of mind the other fellow was in, I could answer that better," he answered.

Thursday evening he will tell the nation by radio and television about Western plans and prospects for the Geneva Big Four foreign ministers meeting which will open May 11 and continue for possibly a month or more.

The impression among Washington officials was that Herter had done a good job in his first international conference as secretary of state. He met with the foreign ministers of Britain, France and West Germany in Paris Wednesday and Thursday.

At the end of next week Herter will fly to the Geneva meeting. This conference is due to cover the whole range of outstanding German problems, including the Soviet's demand for withdrawal of Western occupation forces from West Berlin.

Strike Ends Hospital Air Conditioning

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — The air-conditioning is off at Tulsa's second largest hospital and officials say it's endangering patients who are sweating out sizzling 90-degree weather.

The 15-member stationary Engineer's Union local walked off their jobs at St. John's Hospital Wednesday leaving no one to mind the complicated air-conditioning machinery. Temperatures have risen. So have tempers.

Ken Wallace, assistant administrator at the 640-bed hospital, termed the situation "horrible" Friday. He said the lack of cool air was harmful to sick infants, heart and surgery patients.

"The heat is particularly bad in the operating rooms," said Wallace who added the engineers could funnel air-conditioning into patients quarters while cutting off administrative personnel.

Not so, said the local's business agent C. C. Callicott. "If we could provide air-conditioning to patients alone we certainly would do it," he said.

Callicott said hospital officials refused to sign a new contract even though it included only the provisions of the old contract plus a 10-cent hourly wage increase which both sides agreed on.

Wallace said he wouldn't sign the contract because the union refused to let hospital officials read the new contract.

80 Pct. of Ohio Crossings Void of Any Warning Device

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—About 80 per cent of all railroad grade crossings on Ohio highways have no warning devices of any kind, the Highway Department reports.

The department released this information today as part of a report it is sending to the governor and Legislature in compliance with statute.

The report also outlined the type and number of railroad protection devices planned for installation in the two-year period starting July 1.

It said 197 crossings have top priority for warning devices because they are considered the most dangerous. Some are considered dangerous even though they now have some protection.

The department's Planning Survey Bureau reported there are 10,852 grade crossings on public roads, of which 8,127 lack warning devices of any kind.

But the bureau pointed out that half the train-car accidents last year occurred at crossings protected with flasher lights, gates, watchmen or a combination of all three.

Department officials said the reason for this is probably that such crossings carry the most train and vehicle traffic.

The department has sent questionnaires to all county engineers asking them if they think its feasible to erect advance warning signs at any or all grade crossings.

Of 33 replies received so far, 10 engineers oppose installation of stop signs at crossings and the other 23 favor the signs for at least some crossings in their counties.

The department said it plans to eliminate 10 grade crossings before June 30, 1961.

So far this year, railroads have been ordered to install protection at 14 crossings, compared with 26 during all of 1958.

In addition, railroads have agreed to protect 42 other crossings either by installing warning devices where none existed or modernizing existing protection.

Besides instances where railroads have either been ordered or acted on their own to protect crossings, the department has made requests that 18 other crossings be fitted with protective devices.

In Milwaukee, Cowan said "I have no comment to make." He is an associate clinical professor in his specialty of roentgenology at Marquette University.

Proxmire said "This is a splendid example of the wonderful work being done by Rep. John Moss in combatting secrecy in government." Moss (D-Calif.) is chairman of the House Government Information Committee.

Proxmire said a constituent of his, Sylvester Krolinkowski of Milwaukee, had been trying in vain for nine years to get the facts of the payments to Dr. Cowan.

The senator said Krolinkowski became interested when he read that Cowan was "earning an average of $1,125 a day, minus expenses, for taking the X-rays. He was charging $5 a picture and acknowledged that the X-Rays cost $1.15 apiece."

The Army had no comment on the figures.

Jury Incomplete For Columbus Trial

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Another try will be made Monday to impanel a jury in the first-degree murder trial of David Stanley Smith. The 21-year-old part-time university student is accused of shooting an expectant mother after trying to rape her.

When the trial recessed Friday for the weekend, the 12 jurors tentatively seated had three different faces but numbered the same as the panel present in the morning.

Defense attorneys still haven't announced satisfaction with the jury, as the prosecution did earlier, so that the 12 members can be impaneled and selection of two alternate jurors can begin.

Senators To Shun Censuring Morse

WASHINGTON (AP)—The possibility appeared remote today of any Senate censure of Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) for his actions in the controversy that led Clare Boothe Luce to quit as ambassador to Brazil.

Republican leaders indicated privately they want no part of a proposal by Sen. Homer Capehart (R-Ind) that the Senate officially reprimand Morse for inquiring of Mrs. Luce's physician whether she had received psychiatric treatment.

Influential Democrats laughed off the Capehart suggestions as just another stanza in the running feud between the Indiana Republican and the Oregon Democrat.

Morse said he would welcome a censure attempt by Capehart.

Capehart told a news conference Friday he believed Morse acted with "the height of irresponsibility" in calling Dr. Michael Rosenbluth of New York to ask about treatments directed for his patient.

Capehart said Morse, a former law school dean, knew he was going "far beyond what any senator should do in calling Mrs. Luce's doctor." The Indiana senator noted that the Hippocratic oath bars doctors from disclosing information about patients.

The Senate always has been chary about dealing out the kind of censure Capehart proposed. It voted on Dec. 2, 1954 to condemn the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) for his action in abusing members of its subcommittee on privileges and elections.

Mrs. Luce's decision not to accept the appointment which the Senate had confirmed by a 79-11 vote was accepted regretfully by President Eisenhower. Her action brought mixed reaction among senators of approval and regret.

Morse commended the woman envoy and Eisenhower on her decision.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon called Mrs. Luce's resignation "a great loss to the United States and to the cause of Latin American friendship and progress."

U. S. Postpones 3 Space Shots

Engineering Troubles Blamed for Delays

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the time being, the United States has postponed three important space shots—two probes aimed at Venus and an earth satellite to swing as high as 30,000 miles.

Engineering difficulties in both the payload and boost vehicle system was the only reason given Friday for the delay by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The probes at cloud-shrouded Venus had been set for June. Now they'll have to wait at least 18 months, because the planet swings away from earth and won't be in a good position again until mid-January 1961.

One of the Venus probes was intended to go near the planet and on past it. The other was to be an attempt to put an earthling moon in orbit around the sister planet. Venus has no natural moons of its own.

The high satellite experiment was to try to put a moonlet into a very long, flat orbit. At its high point it would have been 30,000 miles away from earth, but would have swung back to within 250 miles of earth on each trip.

This shot was set for April and already had been postponed at least twice.

NASA said the high satellite would have tested the instruments slated to go on the Venus probes. These would collect information about cosmic rays and other things "on journeys millions of miles into space, in the general direction of Venus," NASA said.

There have been published reports that the Soviets may try a shot at Venus this summer.

Negro Coed Raped by 4 Whites

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — A Negro coed from Florida A&M University was kidnapped and raped at gunpoint by four white men early today after a college dance.

Deputy Sheriff W. W. Slappey reported that the four men involved had been arrested a short time later with the gagged and hysterical girl still in their car.

State Atty. William Hopkins was questioning the four in Leon County Jail and announced that rape charges would be filed against all four.

Three of the men were listed as Patrick G. Scarborough, 20, a Tallahassee man reported A.W.O.L. from Ft. Fisher, N.C. Air Base; William Collinsworth, 24, a telephone company lineman from Tallahassee; and David Ervin Bagles, 18, a Tallahassee high school student.

The fourth was a 16-year-old former high school student whose name was withheld.

Slappey gave an account of the case.

Two Negro couples from Florida A&M were parked in an automobile near the campus about 2:30 a.m. when an automobile containing the four white men pulled up alongside, he said.

At shotgun point the white men demanded that the two Negro girls get into their car. One of the Negro girls broke and ran, succeeding in getting away. The four drove off with the other girl into a wooded area several miles west of the campus. All four raped her, one of them twice, Slappey said.

87 Panama Invaders Give Up Without Firing Single Shot

PANAMA (AP)—Cuban invaders of Panama, who surrendered without firing a shot arrived in the capital as captives during the night in eight heavily guarded buses.

Informed sources said Fidel Castro's Cuban Embassy may seek leniency for the small band who threw themselves on the mercy of the Panamanian courts in laying down their arms.

Hundreds of curious Panamanians silently watched the 87 prisoners — one a woman — marched into jail.

They will be questioned before the government decides what to do with them.

A source with official connections reported antigovernment forces operating near the Caribbean coastal town of Nombre de Dios where the main group of the Cuban invaders gave up Friday.

The strength of the rebels was not determined. First reports did not indicate whether they were Panamanians who have been waging hit-and-run attacks against the government for weeks or new foreign invaders.

The back of the Cuban-based expedition was believed broken, however.

The bedraggled band of revolutionists said they came to Panama on being told the country was ruled by a dictatorship "but we were wrong."

Panama defenses—aided by U.S. on the alert against the danger of more invasions.

Justice Minister J. D. Bazan said the government was still on the lookout for two more invasion ships which reportedly left a Cuban port. But, he said, "they may have turned back in view of the failure of the first expedition."

The surrender of the party that landed in Panama last weekend was carried out under the eyes of a fact-finding team of the 21-nation Organization of American States.

At a meeting of Department of Public Welfare officials Friday, Mrs. Gorman said the consensus was that the $10,500,000 emergency poor relief appropriation would not last until the end of the fiscal 1959.

The previous Legislature had granted an extra six million dollars for poor relief at a special session called last summer by former Gov. C. William O'Neill.

Combining that with the original 24 million dollars poor relief appropriation of two years ago, that means Ohio will spend slightly more than 40 million dollars in poor relief during this biennium.

800 Kentucky Colonels Frolic on Derby Eve

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Eight hundred Kentucky colonels and their ladies gathered for dinner. Nobody seemed surprised when two pistol shots rang out in a downtown hotel room.

It was the start of the annual Kentucky Derby Eve dinner, an evening of fine food, frolic, music and mint juleps for the honorable order of Kentucky colonels.

The dinner raised $24,150 for charities.

Poor Relief Emergency Seen Ahead

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state welfare director says the Ohio Legislature again may be asked to provide emergency funds unless poor relief rolls drop considerably within the next two months.

Mrs. Mary N. Gorman reported Friday that poor relief had been costing the state about one million dollars more for the last three months than had been anticipated.

Even a reduction in May and June would leave Ohio about a million dollars short at the end of the fiscal year June 30, according to figures she said she received from John W. Main, chief of the department's division of Business Administration.

At a meeting of Department of Public Welfare officials Friday, Mrs. Gorman said the consensus was that the $10,500,000 emergency poor relief appropriation would not last until the end of the fiscal 1959.

The previous Legislature had granted an extra six million dollars for poor relief at a special session called last summer by former Gov. C. William O'Neill.

Combining that with the original 24 million dollars poor relief appropriation of two years ago, that means Ohio will spend slightly more than 40 million dollars in poor relief during this biennium.

The awards were presented here Friday by the Ohio Elks Assn. in connection with National Elks Youth Day.

Sue Ann Guillery of Bucyrus and Robert Thompson of Warren took top honors in the statewide leadership contest. They were among 12 district finalists. The other 10 also received prizes.

Winning scholarships, and the chance to win even more in national competition were:

Daniel Ring, Tiffin Calvert High School; Charles Fadley, Norwalk High School; Pauline Kucha, Cleveland John Adams; William Rowe, Warren Harding; and John R. Sack, Cincinnati St. Joseph's.

3 U. S. Firms Get Orders From A-Agency

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three watchmaking companies have been ordered by the Atomic Energy Commission to halt distribution of any luminous dials containing strontium 90.

Strontium 90, deadliest of radioactive fallout, can cause bone cancer if taken into the human system in sufficient quantities.

The AEC orders, issued Friday night, said two of the companies—General Time Corp., Westclox Division, La Salle, Ill., and Elgin National Watch Co., Elgin, Ill.—have imported many such dials, have distributed many to the public and still possess some.

The other company, Bulova Watch Co., Flushing, N.Y., was cited for a single watch with a strontium 90 dial. It was trademarked Westfield, transferred to a Louisville, N.C. jeweler and sold to someone in 1955, the AEC said.

An AEC spokesman said in general a watch with a dial containing strontium 90 would not be more hazardous than the more common ones that have radium compounds to provide luminosity.

But, he said, in some circumstances they might be more dangerous — if the wearer kept it on while he slept and slept with his arm over his face near his eyes, for instance.

A General Time Corp. Executive said the dials and hands involved in its case "were imported a long time ago — five or six years ago" and were used only in repairing watches, not in those newly manufactured.

He said his firm intends to follow AEC instructions in disposal of the stock.

An Elgin official said "The luminous dial watches sold by Elgin were laboratory tested to insure that the radiation level is well within safe limits. The company had not been informed by the Swiss supplier that strontium 90 was the luminous agent used in the imported watches."

Elgin said it imported 4,000 such watches and sold 1,200 of them. "We are cooperating fully with the AEC by halting the shipment of any imported watches in which the strontium 90 was applied, although our tests clearly indicate that the watches were not dangerous," the spokesman said.

The Bulova company said in New York that it had never had strontium 90 in its watch dials and had none in its possession.

The company said the AEC order was based on a single watch imported five years ago and which had been destroyed by the AEC tests.

One Injured In Collision

An 8-months-old baby suffered a bruised nose and a cut lip in a car-truck accident on Route 23 near here at 1 p. m. yesterday.

One of the vehicles was a truck driven by Danny J. Storts, 20, Lithopolis. The auto was operated by Gerald W. Yates, Marion.

Deputy Charles Felkey said the truck was attempting to pull onto Route 23 and was struck by the car.

Storts was cited for failure to yield the right of way, Felkey said.

Union, U. S. Rubber Reach Agreement

NEW YORK (AP)—The United Rubber Workers Union reached agreement with the U.S. Rubber Co., ending a 22-day-old strike. But workers are still out at plants of Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., and the B. F. Goodrich Co.

The fourth big firm, Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., averted a walkout of its 24,000 workers by reaching agreement with the union.

U.S. Rubber's 26,000 workers employed at 18 plants in 11 states, are expected to start returning to their jobs immediately.

Details of the agreement were not announced.

Quackgrass Is Controlled by Cultural Means

Generally, large infestations of quackgrass can be controlled more satisfactorily by cultural practices than with chemicals, according to Agricultural Agent George Hamrick.

It is important that tillage operations bring the maximum number of rhizomes and roots to the soil surface where they will be quickly dried by the sun and wind. Shallow tillage in late autumn will reduce regrowth.

Hamrick said small scattered patches of quackgrass may be satisfactorily treated with TCA at 30 to 40 pounds per acre or Dalapon at 10 to 15 pounds in August or September.

TCA at these rates will not be effective unless immediately preceded by tillage. On the other hand, Dalapon should be applied to actively growing foliage, followed by plowing in 10 to 20 days or in the spring.

IMPROVED control will be obtained if the quackgrass sod is first worked up and then the regrowth sprayed. Summer applications of Dalapon are more effective when followed by moderate rains before plowing.

The field should be planted to a row crop such as corn the next year and cultivated frequently for maximum suppression of quackgrass.

Get Mowers Ready For Haymaking

By George Hamrick
County Extension Agent,
Agriculture

Haymaking has finally become almost as fully mechanized as grain production, but as with grain production, the overhead involved in field choppers, barn driers, pick-up balers, hay crushers and other equipment is considerable.

The first important principle of haymaking is to cut early. The time will vary with crop, the location in the state and the weather. The time of cutting affects both the yield and the quality of hay. Of the two, the farmer is more interested in the quality and the protein content. Every pound of protein that he can save is a pound that he does not have to buy in the form of some high-priced concentrate.

The percentage of protein in the hay declines rapidly from the bud or heading out stage to full bloom, and more slowly from full bloom until maturity of seed. The yields of hay per acre increase rapidly during heading and early blooming. They remain fairly constant and just after blooming, but start to decline when leaves begin to drop off, and losses from insects and by leaching occur.

The maximum yield of protein per acre is usually reached one or two weeks prior to maximum yields of hay, because the percentage of protein decreases rapidly while the yield of hay is increasing.

CUT HAY just before or at the time of highest yield of protein per acre. (1) This gives the highest feeding value and the hay is at its height in palatability; (2) it favors the yield of the second crop, if one is produced; (3) fewer leaves are lost; and (4) there is no reduction in the productive ability of meadows in later years.

Best dates for making the first cutting of alfalfa is May 28-June 10 in Ohio.

In general, alfalfa-grass and clover-grass mixtures should be cut when the legume is ready, but orchardgrass mixtures must be cut earlier and timothy mixtures may be cut later than this would suggest.

Mars Moon Said Made by Old Martians

LONDON (AP)—A Soviet scientist said today the two tiny moons of Mars are artificial space stations, placed in orbit by a now-extinct race of Martians.

I. Shklovsky set forth his theory in the Communist youth paper Komsomolskaya Pravda, quoted by Moscow radio.

Shklovsky said the Martian moons, Phobos and Deimos, are probably hollow. From his observations, he believes they are slowly spiraling down toward Mars and ultimately will crash on its surface.

The Soviet physicist said there is definite evidence that Phobos, the moon nearest Mars, is speeding up as it rotates about its parent planet.

"This is the same behavior as that of artificial earth satellites. Their speed is slowed down by the resistance of the atmosphere and they lose height, going faster and faster as they approach the earth."

"These two bodies may weigh about 100 million tons," Shklovsky said, "but the creation of such satellites would not be an insoluble engineering problem for intelligent beings."

"There is now hardly any oxygen left in the Martian atmosphere, so highly developed life no longer exists there."

"But many astronomers believe the atmosphere did have oxygen two to three billion years ago, appeared on Mars and at that time had achieved a high level of culture."

Pheasant Is Pet

STERLING, Ill. (AP)—A hitchhiking pheasant has become pals with bus driver George Near.

One day Near saw a cock pheasant beside the road. As the bus passed, the pheasant began chasing the vehicle.

Near stopped, walked up to the bird and took it in his hands. He placed the feathered friend on the rail behind the driver's seat and continued down the road. After a distance, he released his passenger.

The next day Near found the pheasant waiting at the same place. He stopped the bus and picked up the pheasant again and put him on the same perch. But when he wanted to discharge the bird, it wouldn't leave the bus.

Now Near has a pheasant who no longer hitchhikes but lives at the bus company office.

Dr. Salk Believes Vaccine Proves OK

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—Dr. Jonas E. Salk, discoverer of the polio vaccine, said today that his studies of results in the first three years of vaccine use indicated that paralytic polio may be controlled by the appropriate use of a killed-virus vaccine.

Salk's vaccine, a killed-virus type, was officially recognized as safe and effective when it was made available for public use in 1955. There has been some subsequent scientific controversy on whether this type of vaccine would have permanent effect against the disease.

29 O-Ville Juniors Take NMS Exams

Twenty-nine juniors at Circleville High School took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, J. Wray Henry, Principal, announced today.

The test was administered in the high school at 8:30 a. m. Tuesday.

This test is the first step in competition for merit scholarships provided by some 90 corporations, foundations, professional societies and individuals, as well as by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation itself.

Some $15 million in merit scholarships has been awarded in the first four years of the program.

THE NUMBER OF scholarships awarded in any year depends upon the extent of sponsor participation. The basic continuing program is for one million dollars a year (for ten annual programs).

In addition, sponsor participation this year is expected to add about two million dollars more in sponsored Merit Scholarships.

It is estimated that various outside-the-program sources will increase the present amounts offered to high scoring students by several million dollars.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test is a three hour measure of educational development and college aptitude. Emphasis is on broad intellectual skills, and the pupil's understanding and ability to use what he has learned, rather than on his sheer knowledge of facts.

Some 10,000 semifinalists, the highest scorers in each state, will be named early next fall. Each semifinalist will take a second examination.

Those who repeat their high performance on the second examination will become finalists. Further evaluation of their grades, citizenship, and extra-curricular achievements will follow, and the winners will be announced in the Spring of 1960.

TEST RESULTS will be reported to all participating schools before the beginning of the senior year, in time for use by seniors and their class advisors.

The scores may also be used in many high schools to help students make decisions about college and the most appropriate courses to pursue.

Dr. John M. Stalnaker, President of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, recently cautioned that there are many reasons why test results cannot be used to evaluate school performance.

The distribution of the population throughout the state, the size of the school, the native intelligence of its top students, the percentage of students taking the test, the nature of the community where the school is located, the purpose of the school, and many other factors having nothing to do with the total effectiveness of the school can influence its number of finalists.

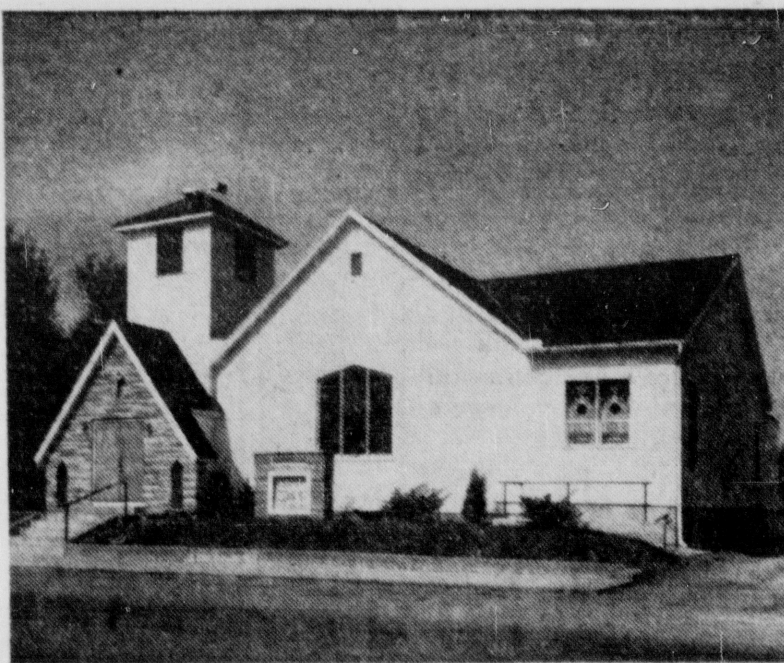

Test results will, however, enable students as individuals to compare their scores with other students across the nation. Science Research Associates of Chicago constructed the test. This group will also score and report the results.

Each Merit Scholarship carries a stipend based on the need of each individual winner. It is renewable annually without further competitive examination. The average stipend in past years has been $700 per year. The minimum award in the 1959-60 Program will be $100 a year and a maximum will be $1,500 a year.

NAMES OF ALL finalists will be sent to colleges and universities and other scholarship organizations throughout the country. In this way many non-winning finalists are helped in winning scholarships awarded directly by colleges and other organizations.

About 700 Merit Scholars, winners of the 1958-59 competition, were named on Wednesday. They are winners in the fourth Merit Program which began last April.

National Merit Scholarship Corporation directs the annual competition. It was founded in 1955, on grants of $20 million by the Ford Foundation and $500 thousand by the Carnegie Corporation of New York.

Christian Union Church Board Approves 4th Major Addition

The Circleville Church of Christ in Christian Union has kept pace with the rapidly growing Circleville community. During the last eight years the average Sunday School attendance has increased from 162 to the present current yearly average of 403.

During this period there have been three major building additions to provide facilities for each year's steady increase.

The Church Board of Trustees and congregation have recently approved the fourth major addition to the church which will make it possible for the church to adequately take care of an average of 550 in the Sunday School.

The present building is 60 by 60 feet with a basement of 9 permanent classrooms and a basement auditorium divided by modern folding doors making three additional classrooms. The sanctuary is equipped with folding doors which make it possible to use almost all of the church for Sunday School classrooms.

The proposed addition to be built during this year is 26 by 50 feet and is to be added to the west end of the church or to the left of the picture shown. It will provide a new and enlarged auditorium. In the basement, an enlarged youth chapel on the main floor and will increase the capacity of the sanctuary.

Charge Account Banking Near?

Newest wrinkle in banking is what is called "charge account" banking. It is being investigated here. The scheme has not been put into effect, but if it is this is how it will work:

Each of the participating banks will issue credit cards.

A customer holding a card will be able to charge purchases at any store, service establishment or restaurant signed up with the bank under the charge-account plan.

A sales slip will be made out as usual. Stores each day will forward to the bank the sales slips, and funds will be credited to the store's account (minus service fees).

At the end of the month, the customers will receive a single bill from the bank covering all purchases during the month.

Longer School Day Advocated

While the idea of 12-month school terms does not win much favor among educators, two schools on Long Island have found virtue in lengthening the daily school period.

These schools have added 20 to 30 minutes to the length of the school day. This was done to meet the needs of larger curriculums and to gain more time to concentrate on specific subject matter that had been skimmed in the past.

In one school the extra time is devoted to reading in the first three grades and to reading and arithmetic in the fourth through the sixth grades. The other school uses the extra time for all subjects. One day is shortened to permit teachers to catch up on their own work and for parent-teacher conferences.

The relatively short increase in teacher time is resulting in greater learning, ac-

He then can pay the entire bill without charge (normal on any store's 30-day charge account) or he can spread payments over several months at specified interest rates.

There is a ceiling on such accounts, depending on the individual's ability to pay. For providing this service, the bank will charge the stores a fee of 6 per cent, with the stores getting refunds if the volume of charges rises above certain levels.

In effect, this makes the bank a bill collector for the stores. Whether the individual would look with favor on this depends on his personal, past relationship with banks and stores.

Which is the easiest to put off for another month when the income doesn't match the outgo?

cording to the superintendent of one of the Long Island schools. "At a time when industry is considering cutting hours — he didn't elaborate — "the willingness of our teachers to assume heavier responsibilities is a remarkable tribute to their professional spirit," he said.

With both reading and arithmetic weaknesses in schools generally, it is a constructive step to place more emphasis on these fundamentals during a longer school day.

Recognition--Then Strikes

The possession of a union charter is not an authorization to destroy our way of life. The American people have long preferred to organize hospitals, orphanages, and similar institutions for the welfare of unfortunate people, out of their charity, out of the goodness of their hearts, rather than by compulsory taxes.

In New York City there are 81 non-profit voluntary hospitals most of which were founded by religious groups but which, in this complex cosmopolitan city, are really denominational. The non-profit voluntary hospitals usually have free wards and free clinics and perform a significant service for the community. There are also 22 municipal hospitals paid for out of taxes.

Few, if any, of them are ever in the black and their officers are practically mendicants, raising funds to keep going. Even those that are heavily endowed find themselves, at the present time, faced by inflationary conditions which affect all costs. It is true that the non-medical workers in hospitals are underpaid and they should not be.

In fact, it would be preferable for patients if the hospitals could afford a higher grade of both skilled and unskilled workers. It is the uncertainty of income which very often explains the inefficiency of administration in some hospitals, because if the funds are not available to have the most efficient workers, things are not what they should be. Elevator operators, cleaning women, cooks, bakers, and all that sort of personnel are usually underpaid and they get what the hospital can afford to pay which is not enough. In some instances, such workers depend upon tips to help out but the unseen workers get no tips.

Now along come some union organizers and demand that their unions be recognized or else there will be strikes. They do not immediately ask for increases for the workers; they first demand recognition which is their private business, namely, they can keep their charities.

When these organizers threaten strikes, they threaten to commit murder, for that is precisely what can happen in a hospital if the services fail. Emergency operations cannot take place; women faced by childbirth cannot be attended to properly. Food will not be cooked and those patients living on special diets will be imperiled. Cleanliness, so essential to cures, will be impossible. One cannot overdraw the horrors of hospital care if the non-medical facilities are abandoned. There is no other word for it than murder.

Those in charge of hospitals dare not recognize a union because it means interminable negotiations, interference in ad-

Miracle Valley Bans Frills Is Ministerial Training Area

BISBEE, Ariz. (AP)—Frivolities like liquor, lipstick, tobacco and ornate jewelry are forbidden to residents of southern Arizona's newest community.

But nevertheless Miracle Valley, founded only last summer as a "City of God" and a ministerial training ground, is growing rapidly.

Last October, the little settlement in Cochise County, 15 miles west of Bisbee, had a population of about 150. Now there are some 300 residents and newcomers are arriving weekly.

More than one-fourth of the residents are students who, upon completion of their training, will be expected to go forth and preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ under A. A. Allen, the controversial revivalist-faith healer who founded Miracle Valley.

Allen is head of A. A. Allen Revivals, Inc., of Dallas, Tex., and has a nationwide reputation for his tent meetings.

An eloquent and highly vocal evangelist, Allen claims that, through the intercession of God, he has cured many sick and restored a number of crippled persons at his spirited revivals.

Miracle Valley sprawls over some 2,400 acres of range land near the Mexican border north of the old cattle town of Hereford.

Half the land was a gift from Urban Leindecker, a rancher-cowboy who now lives in a trailer in Miracle Valley and works for the betterment of the community.

The remaining acreage was bought by Allen from Ben Leindecker, Urban's brother, for a reported $45,000.

Urban Leindecker's gift included a sturdy old ranch house which now serves as headquarters for light industry, including a mattress factory and a studio for the manufacture of religious phonograph records.

Doctor, Dentist Killed in Feud

CHICAGO, Ill. (AP)—A doctor and a dentist at odds over office space were killed Thursday in a whining flurry of bullets behind the locked doors of their joint reception room.

Police theorized the physician, Dr. John T. Hart, 61, killed the dentist, Dr. George M. Winograd, 58, and then turned the gun on himself.

Three letters telling of despondency and "my last earthly act" were found on Hart's body.

Police said Winograd had asked that Hart be evicted from the joint offices. They theorized the men had quarreled over office effects just before the shooting.

TIDE MAGAZINE sheds a tear over the demise of the once proud Packard automobile—and the slogan that helped to make it famous: "Ask the man who owns one." James Ward Packard originated that slogan himself in 1902—three years after he had built, by hand, the first automobile that bore his name, in Warren, O.

A prospect wrote Packard for a circular describing his new, one-cylinder chariot. Packard didn't have any, so he wrote back, "Ask the man who owns one"—and there you are. The Packard changed through the years—but the slogan didn't. It was used in the first auto ad ever printed in color—and featured again in a gold and white catalogue which cost the company $35 a copy in 1907. R. I. P.

Multiple Birth Chances Good

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

What are the chances of having twins? And what are the chances of both babies surviving?

Well, depending upon the age of the mother and many other circumstances, the chances for both children are good.

Women in the 35 to 39-age bracket have about 17 sets of twins per 1,000 births. Those under the age of 20 have about six sets of twins per 1,000 births.

Occasionally, twins will be born several weeks, even months, apart. Sometimes, one twin is considerably larger and heavier than the other. This apparently is due to the fact that conception is possible until about the 14th week of pregnancy. Thus, two conceptions may result.

If you already have children, you are more likely to have a multiple birth than are women who are giving birth for the first time.

Moreover, a recent study in Iowa indicates that twins or triplets are more likely to survive if they are born to a woman with previous children than if they are the first-born.

Infant mortality among twins is highest for children born to mothers under the age of 20. It is next highest for those with mothers between the ages of 20 and 24. It is considerably lower for those born to mothers over the age of 25.

Multiple births, in general, have a higher mortality rate than do single births—especially during the first weeks. For the nation as a whole, the death rate among twins during the first four weeks of life is more than five times that of babies born in single births.

Still, we have an excellent record for saving all concerned as far as multiple births are concerned.

Nevertheless, if you are expecting a multiple birth, I want to especially emphasize the need for prenatal care. It is particularly important to prevent nutritional deficiencies.

You must be under the care of a doctor if you want to give your babies the chance at life which they deserve.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two tart tongues tangled but still unsettled is who had the last word: Sen. Wayne Morse, Oregon Democrat, or Republican Clare Boothe Luce?

When these two came up against each other they abandoned orderly argument and fell back on personal attacks that questioned each other's sanity.

The result: Morse, who lost a battle in trying to prevent Senate approval of Mrs. Luce as ambassador to Brazil, may have won the war because now her husband, Henry Luce, editor-in-chief of Time magazine, says he has asked her to resign.

The Oregonian fought in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee against President Eisenhower's appointment of the stylish Mrs. Luce, a one-time congresswoman from Connecticut and a former ambassador to Italy.

Morse lost there on a vote of 16-1. Then it was up to the full Senate to say yes or no.

Morse not only accused Mrs. Luce of being incompetent as a diplomat but said she was intellectually dishonest. He recalled that in 1944 she said President Roosevelt had "lied us into war."

The senator went further and attacked her husband and his magazines—Time, Life, Fortune—calling the Luce publications the "loose" publications which he said were the No. 1 spokesman for the Eisenhower administration.

To make Mrs. Luce ambassador to Brazil, Morse said, would be paying off a political hack. He said the Luce magazines had done a better "cover-up job for the Eisenhower administration than the Soviet newspaper Pravda had done for Khrushchev."

A handful of senators, all Democrats, joined Morse in disapproving Mrs. Luce but when roll-call came the vote was 79-11 in her favor.

But after she had won, Mrs. Luce did something extraordinary for an ambassador whose performance in Brazil would be under Senate scrutiny.

She issued a statement which said: "We must now wait until the dirt settles. My difficulties, of course, go some years back and began when Sen. Wayne Morse was kicked in the head by a horse." (He was kicked in the face at a horse show in 1951.)

Morse replied by suggesting Mrs. Luce was a mental case. He said: "This is part of an old pattern of mental instability on her part."

As might have been expected—at least by anyone as experienced in Congress and diplomacy as

Mrs. Luce — her statement had a sour effect in the Senate.

Sen. Frank J. Lausche (D-Ohio), who had voted for Mrs. Luce, expressed regret that he had and said her statement demonstrated an "absence of rationalism." Several other senators also said they were sorry they had voted for her.

Not long afterwards her husband in New York issued a statement saying he had asked her to resign because Senate criticism had compromised her usefulness in the new position.

Castro came by plane from the United States and Brazil to attend the Inter-American Economic Conference. The Cuban revolutionary leader spoke briefly to the crowd, which broke through police lines in an attempt to embrace him.

ONE OF THE MOST FAMOUS members of Europe's haute couture designed this charming cocktail dress in white Schiffli-embroidered linen. It is full-skirted and sleeveless.

By SUSAN BARDEN

From the fabulous French Riviera come these typical "jeune fille" fashions designed by Tikiner of the Cote d'Azur.

These costumes have a freshness and youth that will delight any young girl.

For dining and dancing there is an embroidered linen which achieves an Empire line by a high-placed sash.

Another model is a Casino dress with a bateau neckline, double skirt, and white satin sash accented by a pale pink rose.

A dinner suit is as dainty as it is smart, being of Schiffli-embroidered organdy with short sleeves, a Peter Pan collar and the slimmest of skirts under its tunic jacket.

HERE'S A CHIC and useful suit of embroidered organdy.

SCHIFFLI-EMBROIDERY is again used for a delightfully young Casino frock with an amusing, full, double skirt.

New Guinea Missionary Speaks to Lutheran Women

The Rev. Elmer Christiansen, Columbus, was the main speaker at the morning session of the Spring Convention of the South Columbus Group, Ohio District of the American Lutheran Women's Missionary Federation, held Thursday in Trinity Lutheran Church. Mrs. Harold Anderson conducted the meetings.

The Rev. Christiansen is Director of Parish Education of the American Lutheran Church. His subject was "On Bended Knee". He defined prayer as surrender, receptivity, helplessness, faith and friendship. He outlined the Biblical background for the life of prayer and gave six examples of how Jesus prayed. The audience participated in determining the conditions necessary for the life of prayer, and the types of prayers and made suggestions for "How to Pray".

Special music at the morning session was provided by Mrs. D. J. Carpenter who sang "Teach Me To Pray".

The afternoon speaker was Mrs. Kenneth Theile, a missionary on furlough from New Guinea. She and her husband and two adopted native children live in "Furlough House", a home provided, completely furnished, at 875 Sheridan Ave., Columbus, for missionaries on furlough.

She told of teaching the natives how to wash themselves, their babies and clothes. Until the missionaries came into a district, the natives never see any type of cloth. They use grasses woven into bags for all types of carrying. Women are a type of chattel, bought and sold like chickens. They do all the work and family life, as we think of it, is unknown except in the Christian villages. Mrs. Theile, who is a nurse, told about their superstitions which causes a mother to chop off a finger if one of her children is hurt and similar self-inflicted punishments to satisfy their angry gods.

The First Methodist Church has hired Miss Betty Jean Smith, Mt. Vernon, Iowa, to assist the Rev. Paul I. Wachs with its educational and youth program. She is to begin her duties here in September.

Miss Smith is a 1955 graduate of Mt. Vernon High School, Mt. Vernon, Iowa. She attended Lindenwood Women's College in St. Charles, Mo., and was one of five American students selected to receive a scholarship from the World University Service. As a result of winning this award she was sent to Ghana and Nigeria in West Africa to study conditions there in the summer of 1957.

In the fall of that year she transferred to Ohio Wesleyan University where she will receive her Bachelor of Arts degree on June 8.

Throughout her high school and college preparation she has put an emphasis on religion. She has put to practical use this education by taking an active leadership in Methodist churches wherever she has been.

Miss Smith will have changed her name by the time she begins her duties here in Circleville for on June 6 she will be married to Mr. Marshall Douthett.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Rowland Gives 1 Hit

Circleville Nine Edges Hillsboro

A single run in the second inning was good enough to give the Circleville Tigers a 1-0 South Central Ohio League verdict at Hillsboro yesterday.

Don Rowland picked up his fourth straight win on a neat one-hitter. His mates backed him up with six bingles as the Tigers won their second test in two days. Thursday they downed Hillsboro, 7-1, in a Central District Class AA battle here.

Rowland had a no-hitter going until the bottom of the seventh inning when Hillsboro's Storer rapped a single to break the spell. He ended the day with nine strikeouts and walked two.

Circleville got the only run of the day when Ray Phifer walked, pilfered second, then came home when Hillsboro's catcher made a wild throw on a normal return to the pitcher, the ball rolling to second base while Phifer dashed to the plate.

THE TIGERS threatened several times during the contest, but could not get a timely hit or a set up for a score. Hillsboro made a serious bid in the seventh when Bosworth led off with a walk and King got on by a fielder's choice.

Kessler then cracked a single into right, but Duane Dean made a quick throw in to nab King at the plate and end the threat.

Second baseman Terry Dean paced the Tigers at the plate, collecting two bingles in two trips. Bill Purcell had the only hit for extra bases, a long double.

Johnson, a southpaw, hurled for Hillsboro. He fanned five and walked three.

The Tigers, now 8-2 for the season, are set to resume action Monday at Washington C. H. Tuesday they meet Bexley here in a second district tourney game.

If the locals win Tuesday, they will be scheduled for another tourney tilt Thursday. If they lose Tuesday they are slated at Greenfield Thursday.

Patterson Scores KO Over London

Johansson Heartened By Champ's Showing In 11-Round Battle

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson said he wanted a "warmup" and that's just about what he got in methodically chopping down Britain's Brian London in the 11th round of their title fight.

It looked as if the lithe, 24-year-old champ could pull the string any time he wanted Friday night. Floyd pulled it at 51 seconds of the 11th with a jolting left hook to the jaw that sent the burly, 24-year-old Briton on his seat and then on his side for the full count.

Whether the New Yorker was stretching it out or fighting it out as best as he could, the whole thing served to boost the spirits of Patterson's next challenger, Ingemar Johansson.

"I think I have a good chance of being the next heavyweight champion," said the handsome, undefeated Swede. Johansson, the European champion, meets Patterson at New York's Yankee Stadium, June 25.

"Patterson was taking it easy," Johansson said. "If he went out from the start and got down to business, he could have put him out any time."

For a time it appeared Patterson might blast out the 10-1 long-shot early. The fast-punching, 182-pounder rocked his 208-pound rival in the first two rounds and then seemed to ease up.

After that he beat a steady tattoo to the reddening body of his game, powerless foe. In the eighth he shook up London but it wasn't until the 10th that he finally felled him.

The end obviously was in sight and Patterson wasted no time in getting the kill. A barrage of searing body blows finished London.

London had practically no offense. Mostly he jabbed with his left and most of his shots fell short of his elusive target. Patterson slid under most of London's straight rights.

He called in Hugh Fullerton, one of the era's top baseball pennant pickers, and handed him the day's toughest assignment.

Fullerton was ordered to go to the race track and shoot X-ray pictures of the heart of every horse in a big upcoming race.

Fullerton naturally knew that no owner of a race horse would let an X-ray machine within a mile of the track on race day. But he was going to please his editor.

An old friend came to Fullerton's rescue. He had an old nag and they could shoot X-rays of it till the horses came home.

They shot every imaginable angle of that horse's heart.

Fullerton labeled each plate with the name of a horse, and Brisbane scanned them very carefully. Mickelson wrote that the race was the old American Derby.

Next day in his column "Today," Brisbane told briefly about his scientific system and made his selection.

"I laughed until I cried," Fullerton said later. "But do you know what? The horse he picked won that race."

Brisbane never mentioned his foolproof system again.

Back 30 or 40 years ago—no one rightly remembers—the New York racing writers weren't picking their good enough to suit editor and columnist Arthur Brisbane.

Bob Friend Fails 4th Time as Bucs Fall to 7th Spot

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

When Pittsburgh talked pennant last winter, the hopes were based on pitchers Bob Friend and George Witt. Now it's May, the Pirates are seventh in the National League race and seven of their nine defeats have been hung on those two right-handers.

Witt, who shrugged off arm trouble and finished his rookie season with a seven-game winning streak last year, again has been bothered by a sore elbow and is 0-3. Friend, who shared the major league lead with 22 victories when the Bucs finished second last year, now is 0-4. Neither has managed to pitch a complete game.

Friend failed again Friday night. Making his fifth start, he was rapped for 13 hits and lost 7-6 to last place St. Louis.

Milwaukee's first-place Braves retained a mere (.032) percentage point lead, although whipped 6-4 by third-place San Francisco. Fourth-place Cincinnati defeated the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers 5-3, and Philadelphia beat the Chicago Cubs 4-2.

The Cardinals, who had lost three straight, got rolling against Friend in a three-run fourth inning capped by Alex Grammas' two-run double. They put it away with another three in the seventh.

Every spring it's the same. Ask Manager Al Lopez who looks good and he'll point to a guy running in the outfield at the Chicago White Sox training camp. "Wynn," says Lopez, "He always looks good."

At 39, and in his 19th major league season, Early Wynn is Lopez' prime example of a pitcher.

Friday night he pulled off one of the sweetest jobs of his career, beating the Boston Red Sox and Tom Brewer 1-0 with a one-hitter and his own home run in a performance that was the more remarkable because it was far from perfect.

The only Red Sox hit was a first-inning single by Pete Runnels, the second man Wynn faced. There were seven other base runners, all on walks—but Wynn left 'em hanging as he time and again battled back with strikeouts to get out of jams. He fanned 14.

It was Wynn's 252nd victory, tops among active pitchers, and 38th shutout, tops in the American League. It also left the White Sox within a game of the front-running Cleveland Indians, who pulled off a whale of a job themselves in a 4-2, 10-inning victory over the New York Yankees on Tito Francona's three-run, two-out pinch homer.

Kansas City shook Baltimore loose for a full share of third by beating the Orioles 6-3. Washington tossed another shovelful of dirt on Detroit, beating the Tigers 4-3 in 10 innings.

Ironically, it was Wynn's knowledge that barred his first no-hitter. He had moved shortstop Luis Aparicio nearer third before pitching to the left-handed hitter Runnels who bounced his single just to the left of second base, where Luis would have put it away.

Wisconsin and Michigan State, 5-3 victor over Ohio State, pulled into a tie with Minnesota.

In other games, Northwestern defeated Iowa 6-5 and Michigan defeated Indiana, 7-5.

Illinois Undefeated In Big Ten Play

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Illinois took over first place and remained the only undefeated baseball team in the Big Ten Friday by clipping Purdue, 4-3, in 12 innings.

While Illinois was pushing across an unearned run for its triumph, defending champion Minnesota fell into a three-way tie for second place by dropping a 5-3 decision to Wisconsin.

All-Star Rotation Setup Junked

Permanent Site May Be Chosen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A permanent site will be chosen for the annual North-South All-high school football game. Canton, scene of six of the 13 games already played and awarded the next two, appears to have the inside track for the selection.

Ohio's high school football coaches voted Friday to junk the rotation system in selecting sites and set up a permanent site instead. The latter will be chosen later.

The vote was taken while the coaches were here for Ohio State University's 28th annual football clinic.

The permanent site plan received 192 votes, while the rotation system got 71. There also were 59 votes for the coaches' association membership to name the site, 116 for the group's directors to pick it, and 147 for the directors to name the site in cases of emergency.

New officers of the coaching association were elected. Hal Paul of Steubenville was named president, succeeding Junie Ferrall of Barberton.

George Hardie of Youngstown Woodrow Wilson became first vice president and Bill Byerly of Lima Shawnee, second vice president. Carl (Ducky) Schroeder of Massillon was re-elected secretary-treasurer for the 13th straight year.

Named directors from eight of 16 districts were: District 2—Mel Mackey of Fremont, alternate Paul Keltner of Bucyrus; 4—Bill Wilkins of Shelby, alternate Jim Cook of Mansfield; 6—Dave Martin of Cuyahoga Falls, alternate Joe Burns of Akron; 8—Pete Lantz of Youngstown South, alternate Earl Bruce of Salem; 10—D. L. DeCenzo of Westerville, alternate Marvin Moorehead of Upper Arlington; 12—Earl Biederman of Toronto, alternate Bob Wion of Barnesville; 14—Howard Baughman of Portsmouth, alternate Pete Roberts of Springfield; 16—Jim Kelly of Cincinnati Deer Park, alternate Bron Bacevich of Cincinnati Roger Bacon.

Double All-Star Setup Studied

NEW YORK (AP)—The chances are very good that the major league All-Star baseball teams will play a two-game series in the future, and possibly two games this year with an interval of several weeks.

Such a proposal was made to the major league Executive Council by Robin Roberts, Phillies pitcher and National League player representative, with the approval of Eddie Yost, American League representative on the Pension Committee.

The Council unanimously agreed to recommend its adoption of the proposal by the major league clubs. It first, however, must be approved by the players, and a poll already has been started.

So sad and sudden death came to call.
Your sudden death grieved us all.
A sudden change in a moment fell
Without a chance to say farewell.
We often sit and think of you,
And then of how you died.
To think you could not say goodbye
Before you closed your eyes.
No one knows our longing
And no one sees up weep.
We shed our tears with aching hearts
While others are asleep.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Close Up Shop, Mother!

DEAR ABBY: Mother's Day is coming again and I get tired just thinking about it. Last year my 7 children (all married) came for supper. They brought their families and we number 38 and ate in 3 shifts. I got up at five-thirty in the morning to start the supper. Nobody helped me peel a potato and they all started coming in at five o'clock with their kids. I wiped noses, heated bottles, changed diapers, answered questions and waited on everybody trying to make them feel comfortable and welcome. They left my house upside down and it took me a week to clean it up. I still love them but I am wondering how many more Mothers' Days I can take like the last one? Any suggestions?

AVERAGE MOTHER
DEAR ABBY: If this is the way your children "honor" their mother on MOTHER'S DAY, its time you spoke up. Tell them on MOTHER'S DAY the kitchen and nursery are closed. Get yourself all prettied up and let them take YOU out for dinner. It's supposed to be YOUR day—not theirs.

DEAR ABBY: May I make a suggestion to how to handle uninvited guests when they "drop in" and spoil your plans? Keep your coat and hat hanging near the door. When the doorbells ring, slip it on in a hurry, and then open the door. If it's someone you do not wish to entertain, tell them how sorry you are that you were just leaving and are already ten minutes late. If it's someone you want to entertain, invite them in and tell them you just got home. It works ten times out of ten. Cordially,
R. F. K.

DEAR R. F. K.: And what do you do if you say you are leaving, and the "guest" offers to go with you?

DEAR ABBY: I am a sophomore at college and I feel like a child asking you this question but I'm ashamed to ask anyone else. I've dated lots of fellows and have made out with many of them but I've always kept my emotions under control. But, Abby, there is one fellow in my English class who makes me flip. Whenever I see him and our eyes meet, I get weak in the knees and have to look away. I can't even think straight when he looks at me. We have nothing much in common (different backgrounds, interests, religion, etc.) and I don't think he's serious about me. I'm sure this isn't "love"—but what is it?

COOKIE
DEAR COOKIE: This is "physical attraction"—and unfortunately, often passes for "love." If this is all you have in common, avoid him, because when this feeling takes over, it blots out reason, and that's the way the cookie crumbles.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Rawls, Prentice Leading Girl Pros

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP)—Most of the field in the third annual Land of the Sky Women's Open Golf Tournament hoped that a change in courses today would bring a change in their scores.

Betsy Rawls of Spartanburg, S.C., and JoAnne Prentice of Birmingham, Ala., were the only two in the field of 26 leading women professional golfers able to par the Biltmore Forest Country Club course Friday.

Their par 71s over the 6,264-yard course was good for the first-round leadership in the 54-hole tournament worth $6,000. Today's play switched to the Beaver Lake course.

Behind the leaders the scores were strung out to the high of 91. Intermittent rain was blamed for some of the high scores.

Large Anchor Found

POINT PLEASANT BEACH, N. J. (AP)—A large anchor, relic of the days of sailing ships, has been dragged from the Atlantic Ocean seven miles southeast of Manasquan Inlet.

Encrusted with rust, barnacles and clam shells, the anchor was accompanied by more than 300 feet of wrought iron chain.

It was recovered by the commercial fishing boat Adele, and stands 9½ feet tall by 8½ feet wide at the flukes. Each chain link weighs more than 10 pounds.

DuPont Plans New Plant in South Carolina

The Du Pont Company has approved plans for construction of a second plant to manufacture "Mylar" polyester film to be located at Florence, S. C., according to Emory F. Ridlon, manager of the Du Pont plant at Circleville.

The new plant, to be built at a cost of almost 20 million dollars, is scheduled for completion early in 1961. It will employ about 250 people at start up. This figure will increase gradually to a total of about 500 when production reaches capacity.

One reason for the company's choice of the South Carolina site, Ridlon said, was to provide customers with a second source of supply for "Mylar". He also expressed confidence that the Circleville plant would continue to grow.

When Du Pont's Circleville plant — the world's first commercial plant for production of "Mylar" — started operations in 1954, Ridlon pointed out, it provided about 250 jobs. As sales of "Mylar" in the industrial and packaging markets have increased, the plant has been expanded, so that it gives employment today to more than 600 people.

THE LATEST of a series of expansions is now in progress, and when it is completed early next year, the capacity of the Circleville plant will have been more than doubled since 1954.

"The decision to build a second plant", Ridlon said, "is evidence of the Du Pont Company's confidence in this versatile new film for industrial and packaging markets."

Rural Sunday Devoted to Rich Blessings

By REV. H. DALE ROUGH
Calvary EUB Church

We can be thankful, both rural and city dwellers alike, that our churches and state have united to recognize the benevolence of our Creator and to express our deep-felt gratitude to Him as a special observance during the first week of May.

The ancient Hebrews were among the first to voice their feelings of wonder and dependence to God. Psalm 65:8-13 is a notable example of the prayer and song offered during the planting festival:

"Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to shout for joy.

Thou visitest the earth and waterest it, thou greatly enrichest it; the river of God is full of water;

Thou providest their grain, for so thou hast prepared it. Thou waterest its furrows abundantly, settling its ridges,

Softening it with showers, and blessing its growth.

Thou crownest the year with thy bounty; the tracks of thy chariot drip with fatness.

The pastures of the wilderness drip, the hills themselves with joy.

The meadows clothe themselves with flocks, the valleys deck themselves with grain, they shout and sing together for joy."

In our industrialized society we sometimes forget how dependent we are upon each other and the produce of the soil as God blesses it with sunshine and rain. While many of us do not till the soil, still its careful use is the concern of all.

IN THE year 470 the crops failed in the area around Vienne, France. Hunger was widespread. The people, depending on the fruits of their soil each year, had scanty reserves and little money.

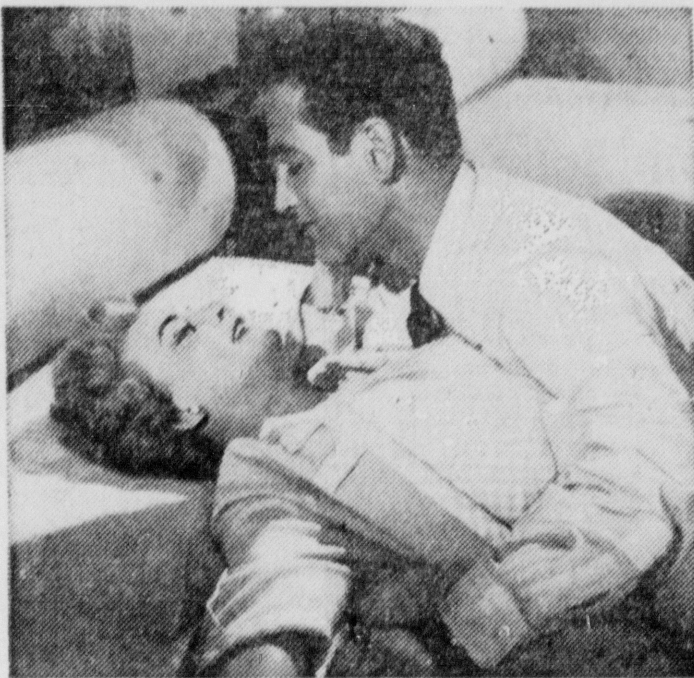

The Bishop of Vienne called for prayer and penance on the three days preceding Ascension Day. At this time the people called upon God to help them in their suffering and need.

Other communities soon took up the observance and from France the custom of Rogation Days — days of giving thanks to God for His bounty and asking for His continuing blessings — has spread throughout the world.

People on these days ask the mercy of God that He may keep from His children the evils of soul and body and give to the plants of the field a good increase. For it is not the earth alone which brings forth fruit, now is it alone on the busy hand of man that increase depends; but it is God who gives the increase.

So it is fitting that we the people of Pickaway County unite with the nation in recognizing our mutual dependence upon God, the soil, and those diligent stewards who till it. "The Earth is the Lord's" and we are His humble servants.

May He give us skillful hands and minds that the earth's abundance may serve the needs of us all, thus adding praise and Glory to the Lord of all life.

RALLY ROUND THE FLAG BOYS — Pictured are Paul Newman and Joanne Woodward who portray a happily married couple in a small community until the U. S.
